Sheriff, Bay PD report incidents

By EDGAR H. PEREZ
A 26-year-old Phoenix, Ariz. man is charged by the Hancock County Sheriff's Department with burglary and forgery, and Bay St. Louis police ticketed a local driver after a passenger threw a beer can out of her car on Old Spanish Trail. In the burglary case, Sheriff's Investigator Glen Strong reported the arrest of Osman Allen, 26, in connection with a Monday break-in at a Shoreline Park trailer owned by Carl G. Chosa. Allen is being held in the Hancock County Jail in lieu of $10,000 bond. In the Bay St. Louis incident, a citation was issued by Bay police to Ula P. Lindsay of Bay St. Louis for littering. Police said the driver of a vehicle is responsible for the actions of passengers. The case is scheduled for a Wednesday night hearing Dec. 4 in City Judge Joseph Benvenuti's court.

Christopher Stephen Billiot, 20, died Tuesday, Nov. 19 from injuries he received in an accident last week on U.S. 90 in Pass Christian. Billiot was a passenger on a motorcycle driven by his brother, Emille Billiot, 25, of Gulfport. The brothers were injured when the motorcycle was struck by a car entering the highway. Following the accident, both brothers were transported to the Gulfport Memorial Hospital where Emille remains in stable condition. Jim Martin, Pass Christian patrolman, said the driver of the car, Sharon Gibson, 48, of Long Beach, has been charged with failure to yield right of way in the incident. Toyota may locate in Mississippi Governor Bill Allain reports the State of Mississippi remains under consideration as a possible location for a Toyota plant. Gov. Allain confirmed that he and officials of the State Department of Economic Development met last week with officials from the North America Project Office of Toyota Motor Corporation. "We remain on the short list of states that are under consideration. However, we are still following the wishes of the Toyota executives that any specifics of our conversations remain confidential. The people of Mississippi can rest assured that their officials are doing everything within our power to secure this facility for Mississippi," Allain said. This week's trip marks the second visit of the Toyota officials to Mississippi. They met with Allain and State Department of Economic Development officials last month. A final decision on a plant location is expected before the first of the year.

Pre-construction conference for Central Avenue scheduled

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

The contract to repair Central Avenue is expected to be signed today at a pre-construction conference at Bay St. Louis City Hall.

Bay Mayor Victor Frankiewicz Jr. reported Tuesday at a council meeting that notification of final approval of the contract had been received.

The Bay council recently awarded the contract to Necaise Construction Company of Gulfport with a low bid of $247,974.

Frankiewicz said that the project would use all Federal-Aid Urban System funds currently available to the city including a $31,800 allotment in 1986 and approximately $7,000 of funds expected in 1987.

Local participation in the project will be 25 percent of the total cost.

The notice to proceed should be issued within a week and work will begin shortly after that, Frankiewicz said.

The 120-calendar day contract includes drainage improvements, widening and paving.

Frankiewicz said the quality of the requirements of the contract, the paving job should last 20-30 years.

"This will be a first class roadway and it should last at least that long," he said.

"If roads don't last at least that long, the city will go broke in the long term rebuilding roads," Frankiewicz said.

"Ocean Springs and Pascagoula should be the teams to beat this year as both schools have outstanding soccer programs," Seymour said in surveying the nine teams in the league.

Following the opening encounter tonight, the Tiger soccer schedule will include junior varsity games as well as varsity. The JV teams will meet at 5:30 p.m., followed by the varsity games at 7 p.m.

In Sunday's edition of the Sea Coast Echo, two Red Cross volunteers featured in a photograph at the Hancock County Civil Defense office were incorrectly identified.

The two are Brad Hall and Jan Hall of Shoreline Park. In addition, the name of Civil Defense representative Dorothy Bielestein was incorrectly spelled.

The Echo regrets the errors.

National Adoption Week proclaimed

The President has proclaimed Thanksgiving week, Nov. 24-30 as National Adoption Week.

The North American Council on Adoptable Children initiated National Adoption Week nine years ago.

The Mississippi Department of Public Welfare along with the Mississippi Council on Adoptable Children and several licensed adoption agencies are sponsoring through a proclamation signed by Governor Bill Allain on Nov. 6 that the week of Nov. 24 be recognized as Adoption Week in Mississippi.

This week will focus on adoption options: Adoption as a caring alternative.

There are 71 children registered with the Mississippi Adoption Resource Exchange.

The Mississippi Adoption Resource Exchange, created by Mississippi Law 2465, effective July, 1978, specifies that the Department of Public Welfare will maintain a Mississippi Adoption Resource Exchange Registry of all Mississippi children free for adoption as well as families who have been approved by a licensed agency with the state to adopt a child or children.

Out of the 71 children, 38 are black males, 24 are black females, one is a bi-racial male, two are white males, and seven are white females.

The children are all over five years of age - with 11 children being in the 6-10 year old range, and 60 children being over 11 years of age.

The registry includes biographical sketches and pictures of all children whose custody is held by a licensed Mississippi adoption agency.

Descriptive characteristics are written for each child which includes the child's age and first names only. The last names are kept confidential.

The registry also includes biographical sketches and pictures of families who have been approved by a licensed adoption agency and who have given written authority for publication of this material.

In October, 1983 Mississippi started using a statewide toll free telephone number for families interested in adopting special needs children. The number is 1-800-821-9157. A Code-a-Phone is used to record messages when the office is closed.

The licensed adoption agencies that are sponsoring and are named in the proclamation signed by Governor Allain include Bethany Christian Services, Catholic Charities, Catholic Social and Community Services of Biloxi, Holt Adoption Program, Inc., Latter Day Saints Social Services, and Mississippi Children's Home Society, Inc.

ASCS Report

FIP SIGNUP UNDERWAY

The sign-up period for the Forestry Incentives Program (FIP) practices will be Nov. 4-22 at the local office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

"We ask farmers to sign up as soon as possible because their practices must be approved by the county committee before the work can begin," according to Franklin Gennin of ASCS.

Farmers who start forestry practices before approval are ineligible for cost shares.

Program funds are available for Planting Trees and Timber Stand Improvement. Gennin said that the forestry incentives program is designed to increase the nation's supply of timber products and to enhance other forest resources.

The demand for saw timber, plywood logs, and quality logs, and quality hardwood logs in this county is expected to exceed the supply within 25 years unless many more trees are planted each year and much more forest land is placed under good forest management. The forestry incentives program is available only to privately owned land.

Many private non-industrial landowners do not have the funds to make long term investments to improve forest land; therefore, the program is designed to assist those landowners.

Seventy-four counties in Mississippi are designated for FIP and are eligible to participate in the program. Mississippi has benefited by receiving funds totaling $7,000,000 to improve the productive capacity of our private forest lands since the origin of the forestry incentive program in 1974.

We received a note last week from a reader complaining about the American Flag being displayed improperly at the Bay St. Louis Veteran's Day ceremonies.

We know for a fact research was done by city officials before the ceremonies on the correct display procedure of the American Flag.

Information was obtained from an American Legion Officer's Guide.

The section on American Flag display states: "...When displayed either horizontally, or vertically against a wall, the union should be uppermost and to the flag's own right, that is, to the observer's left. When displayed in a window, the flag should be displayed in the same way, with the union or blue field to the left of the observer on the street..."

We thought we would just pass this information on.

The large turnout for the Public Meeting Thursday night for discussion on the preliminary long-range Beachfront Plans shows there are many interested residents.

The long-range plan is a very good idea and one which should have been done many years ago.

We do have to commend our officials for having the foresight to have such a plan developed.

We have had an opportunity of serving on the Technical Advisory Council which was selected early this year.

The project involves both Hancock and Harrison Counties, yet each county's study is separate as there are different factors to be considered.

It takes long-range planning today to accomplish things which may even seem impossible.

Hurricanes Elena and Juan showed the desperate need for shore protection in Hancock County.

Shore protection is one of the primary concerns of the study.

Many agencies are involved, yet we feel that the Bureau of Marine Resources, the agency which is supplying the brunt of the funds for the study, should be commended on their efforts to protect the coastline in the future.

It is good so many are now showing a serious concern about the education of our youth.

This week has been designated nationwide as National Education Week.

On tonight, (Thursday), an Education Forum sponsored by the local members of the Bay St. Louis Association of Educators is scheduled for 7 p.m. at Bay Junior High's Auditorium.

State Senator Gene Taylor and Robert Magee, assistant superintendent of education, will be among the speakers.

A film will also be shown entitled 'Teacher and School Effectiveness'.

The Bay St. Louis Association of Educators are hoping there will be a large attendance of parents and concerned citizens who attend this forum.

The Bay High Tigers, victorious last week in District VIII play, on Friday will play Magee for the South Mississippi Class 3-A championship.

If the Tigers win this week they will play the winner of Districts Five and Seven for Southern championship the following week.

The game will be played at Hattiesburg High stadium.

Head Coach Cleveland Williams and his staff have been preparing Bay High for this very important game.

We know Hattiesburg is a distance from Bay St. Louis, but we hope there will be many Tiger fans in Hattiesburg stadium cheering for their hometown team.

We wish the Tigers good luck on Friday.

Diamondhead Property Owners Association responds to Dr. Mayfield's observations on resort operation

Nov. 18, 1985

Letter To The Editor:

This letter is in response to an item appearing in your paper on Nov. 7, 1985, entitled "Unhappy Diamondhead resident foresees exodus" followed by a letter signed by M. Frances Mayfield, MD.

Dr. Mayfield also sent her letter to the Board of Directors of the Diamondhead Property Owners Association two weeks ago and had received a response to her letter prior to the time you published her letter. I ask that you please publish the attached response to her in your paper, together with my explanatory letter.

To those of us personally acquainted with Dr. Mayfield, we were not surprised by her letter. But to others, her letter might be taken as a correct presentation of life at Diamondhead and of our directors now operating our resort home.

I want to assure all that is not the situation here, and invite everyone to come see Diamondhead, visit with our hundreds of happy residents, and even better, consider making Diamondhead your future home.

Sincerely,

Glenn A. Smith

President

Diamondhead Country Club and Property Owners Association, Inc.

Nov. 11, 1985

M. F. Mayfield, M.D.
Diamondhead

Dear Frances:

We, the Board of Directors of the Diamondhead Country Club and Property Owners Association, extend sincere thanks for your interest in management of Diamondhead and will try to answer your questions.

The initial organization was an attempt to operate Diamondhead in the same manner as Purcell Corporation. This is required in the acquisition deed. We have cut personnel and services where there was duplication and the interests of the majority of the residents would not be compromised. We will continue to try various combinations for maximum progress and we are still moving forward.

Your board never promised not to raise the monthly assessment but to try to keep it at the first-year level, which we did! The $120 one-time takeover assessment was just not enough to replace all the equipment and bring the dilapidated amenities into acceptable condition.

The amenities are operating in the red because only about 200 of our residents utilize them. We are operating two restaurants, and a proper cooking and serving staff takes considerable time to develop.

The units are in direct competition with Vrazel's, Stark's, Hinky Dinky, Captain Winstead's and all of the others with too few patrons.

We will be glad to have, and solicit, the expertise of all residents. We tried a soup, salad and sandwich bar and very few people patronized it. Morrison's tried Country Club operations and dropped it because of uncertain attendance. Hors d'oeuvres have been replaced with pretzels and peanuts for several weeks.

Golf fees are below any of the other Country Clubs, and daily and monthly fees are available. The developer will confirm this.

The reason for banning walks and golf cart pleasure riding during golfing hours was to prevent a fatality because of misuse of the privilege.

State law prohibits the use of golf carts, three wheelers, unlicensed moped and all-terrain vehicles on any public road. Diamondhead private roads are open for these usages when not abused by excessive speeds and recklessness.

Our golf professional pays, and hires, his own staff and is under the same contract as preceding professionals. He stated that because of the number of members, the expanded programs and duties that two assistants, replacing terminated previous employees, is very necessary and costs property owners association nothing.

The Diamondhead Men's Golf Association was to supply TV for the Nineteenth Hole, not in the pro shop, but did not, so Property Owners Association will furnish one.

Rangers are residents and property owners and try to accomplish an impossible job in view of all the violations, without injuring sensitive feelings. Members and guests are often profane and abusive when observed in obvious and gross violations.

Frances, you know that Diamondhead is operated in a democratic way in which the will of the majority is the governing law just as in the medical profession.

The expertise of the adult residents of Diamondhead goes without question, and assistance is solicited at every opportunity, but the buck stops with the board of directors and we, plus the administrative staff, are answerable for the ultimate rules and regulations to make Diamondhead a happy place for all residents.

Thank you for your constructive observations and with very best wishes, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Sidney Watson, O.D.

Educational excellence, a must for Hancock's growth in the future

It is essential for Hancock Countians to seek educational excellence for our youth.

It simply boils down to the fact that today's educational skills will not maintain our youth for the future growth of the area.

It was revealed last week at the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce-National Space Technology Laboratories 'Partners in Progress' workshop there are 4,500 employees at NSTL.

NSTL, as most of you know, is located primarily in Hancock County with a little of the Buffer Zone being in Pearl River County and St. Tammany Parish.

In our minds the most important factor revealed at the 'Partners in Progress' was the educational qualifications of NSTL's work force.

Some 36% of NSTL's work force hold bachelor's degrees, in addition to 21% who have master's or doctorate degrees.

The majority of these well-educated people had to be imported to the area because the local work force did not have the skills necessary to fill many of the positions.

It wasn't because the residents of the area were not smart enough that forced NSTL to go all over the country seeking people to work, it was the lack of local educational skills.

Now comes the good news. In time many of these highly skilled people will reach retirement age, and positions will be open for persons with similar educations.

NSTL will be looking to the immediate area to fill these positions, and if Hancock County residents have the credentials, they will have an opportunity of stepping right in.

As a matter of fact, NSTL is in the process of establishing a Job Information Center for all federal and private industries at the facility.

This information center should be completed by January.

STATE GOVERNMENT EXAMINATION

The 15-page report from the Governor's Private Sector Action Council makes worthwhile reading, especially for those interested in affairs of state government.

The need for state government reorganization is well documented by the 42-member private sector group, particularly as it relates to the state's use of its money and its manpower.

Here are examples: In money matters, the state currently spends about $4 billion per year, but only about 35 percent of that total flows through the general fund budget. The remaining 65 percent, about $2.6 billion, is in special funds which receive, according to the council, "only limited oversight."

has balanced the state's $1.5 billion budget, it has dealt with only about 35 percent of total state expenditures.

In manpower matters, Mississippi's state government payroll is among the largest in the nation, based on number of employees.

In 1984, the council reports, Mississippi state government employed 50,000 people in full or part-time positions, resulting in the full-time equivalent of 164 employees per 10,000 population, "an unacceptable ratio exceeded by only 19 other states and one which has expanded consistently over the last 20 years."

Two facts - the fragmented state budget and the expanding state government payroll - justify examination of state government by the 1986 Legislature.

News From The Governor's Office

Gov. Bill Allain

The State Bureau of Narcotics, at my request, has begun a massive crackdown on drugs being harvested in our state, especially the marijuana crop. We are currently in the harvest season for this deadly crop, and state and local officials have begun "Operation Seek and Destroy" to stop the harvesting of an estimated 100,000 plants.

"Operation Seek and Destroy" is a joint effort, led by the Bureau of Narcotics, to combine all the manpower of the Highway Patrol, Federal Drug Enforcement Agency, Wildlife Conservation, U.S. Attorney's office, Sheriff's Association, and State Police in an attempt to locate and chop down as much marijuana as possible in this state in the next few months.

Marijuana and other drugs are causing terrible problems in our state. Over 75 percent of the inmates at Parchman were arrested in drug-related activities. Some 1,500 people a year are admitted to state mental hospitals due to alcohol and drug problems. The dangers of marijuana are not well enough known. One marijuana cigarette reduces one's reaction time by 41 percent; two marijuana cigarettes reduce reactions by 63 percent. Imagine how this would affect someone driving a car or operating dangerous equipment.

Between now and late November, our state and local law enforcement officials are looking for any marijuana fields throughout Mississippi, so we can cut them down and thereby reduce the supply of the drug in our state. We are asking all Mississippians to contact the law enforcement officers if you suspect that you see a marijuana field. The officers will then investigate the matter. With only 45 state narcotics agents in Mississippi, we must have the help of everyone to stop this threat on our society.

In addition to the "Operation Seek and Destroy," we are also fighting the drug problem in Mississippi by requesting U.S. Attorney General Ed Meese to give us more federal drug agents in Mississippi. We have only five federal agents, while Alabama has 17 and Louisiana has 38. Last year, we also asked the State Legislature for 10 additional state narcotics agents; they gave us five. We will be asking the 1986 Legislature for 10 more this year.

Finally, we are working in a Gulf States regional effort to rid our area of drug trafficking. Last year I attended a meeting in New Orleans with the Governors of Alabama, Louisiana, Texas, and Florida. At that time we began a task force of the Governors and their top narcotics bureau officials to fight the drug problem. I am pleased to report to you that this effort is working, and we have secured federal legislation as a result of our meeting that will allow the military personnel to assist in the battle against drugs.

We have a long way to go in stopping this dangerous problem, but these activities will keep reducing the drugs in our state and, then, keep them out of the hands of our citizens, especially our young people.

Hospital development fund reports corporation gift

Borg-Warner Chemicals, Inc. has made the first gift of $30,000 to the development program for the new Hancock Medical Center, the replacement facility for Hancock General Hospital now under construction and scheduled for completion in late November, 1988.

"Borg-Warner has committed itself to promoting growth and progress in Hancock County," said Leo Kowal, plant manager, "and we feel this new hospital is vital to that growth and progress."

"We are very pleased to be a part of this development campaign, and urge the entire community to support Hancock Medical Center, since it will be providing all of us with some of the most advanced medical technology available today," he concluded.

"The development program has set a goal of $200,000," said Rev. Charles R. Johnson, hospital board chairman and general co-chairman of the campaign.

"We also feel the response is out there, and we deeply appreciate Borg-Warner's commitment to the new hospital," Johnson added.

"Local businesses, individuals and organizations will be contacted to support the new Hancock Medical Center," said Phillip Langston, hospital administrator and general co-chairman of the campaign.

HOSPITAL FUND—Leo Kowal, left, plant manager at Borg-Warner Chemicals, presents a $10,000 check to Rev. Charles R. Johnson and Phillip Langston, co-chairmen of Hancock Medical Center development campaign. The $10,000 gift is part of a $30,000 pledge to the development fund by Borg-Warner.

Leveled billing is just one of our good ideas about customer service. Others:

- Delayed Due Date (3-D) Program: If you're on a limited income assistance plan, we may be able to change the due date on your bill to accommodate the date you receive your check.

- Third Party Notification: This service makes sure someone is contacted when there's a serious billing problem.

The turkey would have been a far more fitting emblem for America than the eagle, Benjamin Franklin wryly suggested more than once in his days - for few of the early colonists had ever spied an eagle - and it was the wild turkeys which helped keep the struggling colonists from starvation in Virginia and New England.

Down through the years the turkey has been the star of the Thanksgiving table - but, here the "togetherness" of American cooks ends - as there are so many ways to cook and serve the holiday bird, as well as to choose the accompanying side dishes and as for the stuffing or dressing that fills or goes with the turkey, it often comes to all-out war of sorts!

My mother and my mother-in-law could never agree on the proper dressing or stuffing for the turkey, so in their later years, when our home was the gathering place, I chose the easy (on the nerves, that is, besides, there was a wonderful cook in the kitchen) way out, and offered both oyster stuffing and cornbread stuffing! How's that for diplomacy or summit "smarts" to keep the peace?

(As far as my husband and sons were concerned, I could have skipped the turkey completely, and served just the stuffing - I always had to cook extra for them!)

It's your turkey and your dinner, so do as you please. As for the turkey itself, despite newer ways with foil and what have you, I still like to cook mine in an open roasting pan, mopping extravagantly with melted butter and dusting liberally with sage and pepper and, perhaps, a dash or so of salt.

As the bird roasts, I baste it again and again with the drippings and butter and generous splashes of burgundy wine and more sprinklings of sage, for it makes the whole house smell so heavenly!

Oyster dressing is my favorite, and as a compromise between my mother's dressing and that of my mother-in-law, I'll give you, instead, a recipe from my cousin, Robb Sanford, his mother's formula. Here's:

GRAN SANFORD'S OLD TIME STUFFING
1 or 2 loaves of stale French bread (preferably) according to the amount of stuffing desired
1 or 2 dozen oysters for each loaf
2 or 3 large onions, chopped fine
2 ribs of celery, chopped fine
1 cup parsley, chopped fine
1 egg

Generous pinch of sage
And, in her words, "break the bread into small portions and soak in water, then squeeze dry. Saute the onions in a little oil until light brown, then add the oysters, cut in small bits, and the celery and parsley as well."

"Cover the pot and simmer on a low fire for 10 to 15 minutes, adding a little butter. Take off the fire and mix the bread and seasonings into the mixture. Beat the egg and add to the whole mixture, and, if it seems too moist, cook a bit more before stuffing into the turkey."

And, she adds in her well worn notes, "Better have at least two loaves of bread and plenty of oysters, if you have five or six folks at the table, as I know Bob's capacity when it comes to oyster dressing."

And, she adds that, "if you can't fit all of the stuffing into the turkey, just put the remainder in a baking dish and mix with some of the turkey gravy and bake for a short while."

Some cooks like to add pecans to the dressing, others add the turkey giblets, find-chopped and sauteed over medium heat for 10 or 15 minutes or so, before adding the seasonings and oysters and bread.

And, if your family is small, why not cook a turkey breast or half a turkey (and save the other half for another time) or a chicken or whatever - but do cook up some stuffing or dressing, whichever you want to call it, for a good "go with" as our old family cook used to call the side dishes accompanying the entree or "focus of the feast."

Happy Thanksgiving!

Mayors, board president to proclaim 'Family Week'

Mayors Victor Franckiewicz and John Longo Jr. of Bay St. Louis and Waveland, respectively, and A.A. Kellar, president of Hancock County Board of Supervisors, Thursday will sign a joint proclamation marking Nov. 24-30 as "Family Week," an observance aimed at strengthening local families.

The proclamation coincides with designation of Thanksgiving week as National Family Week by joint resolution of the Congress and proclamation by the President of the United States.

All organizations are invited to participate in the observance, along with individuals and families. Churches are encouraged to lead in the observance with special events for their own congregations.

In the local proclamation, citizens were urged to "join in meaningful activities such as family discussions, home improvement projects, church attendance, recreational sports, and family prayer."

The proclamation also recommends that "youth organizations, service clubs and other civic groups and churches feature speakers and activities during this week to focus attention on family solidarity."

Leaders of churches were among the first to join in the observance. "The home is the basic unit of all society. If we help strengthen it, we help strengthen our community and our nation," said Bishop Harry Bell of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He presides over the Waveland Ward.

"In a recent statement supporting National Family Week, our church leaders noted that in an era when the undermining of the home and family seems to be on the increase, it is fitting that we pause to consider ways and means to strengthen this most basic institution," Bell noted.

"Our leaders have pointed out that the home is the most effective place for children to learn life's valuable lessons of truth, honor, faith in God, prayer, virtue and self-control," Bell said.

"Some of the great strengths of families are found in their own traditions."

Family traditions can consist of many things—skits on Christmas Eve, homemade valentines, scrapbooks, outings, birthdays and special desserts, Bell continued.

In trying to meet the special needs of their family, parents should avoid overcommitment of their resources and energy, and save some time for each other, he said, adding "Paul's counsel is forthright: 'but if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his house, he has denied the faith and is worse than an infidel'."

"Home is the chief school of human virtues—it's responsibilities, joys, sorrows, smiles, tears and hopes form the principle interests of human life. No other success is greater than that attained in the home," Bell feels.

Point of Law

(Prepared by the Mississippi State Bar. Some legal rights may vary from locality to locality. Always consult an attorney when in doubt about your rights.)

Q. I have begged and begged, but my neighbors refuse to instruct their teenager to keep the volume down on her radio when she congregates with other teens in her front yard every night. I called the police and they came. I suppose they asked her to turn it down but as soon as the patrol car left the volume was turned up again. Is there anything I can do?

A. Yes, but first don't get mad at the police. They are powerless to make an arrest or issue a citation for a violation they did not see.

If you're serious about getting the noise stopped, you can go to the police station or justice court and sign a complaint against your neighbors for disturbing the peace. They will be served with notice of your complaint and a trial date will be set at which you may testify or present evidence. If they are found guilty, the judge may fine them or suspend the fine conditioned on their keeping the noise down in the future.

Following solid performances in opening meets last week, USM's Golden Eagle swim teams will host weekend at USM.

In their opening meets Nov. 8-9, the men took third out of eight teams

SPORTING WEEKEND

In addition to Saturday's football regular season finale against Tulane, athletes will be busy elsewhere on the USM campus.

The Women's Metro Conference
Volleyball Tournament opens Saturday at 9 a.m. and ends with Sunday afternoon finals. In addition, both men's and women's swim teams will be in action Saturday.

Saturday's home meet will feature both USM teams along with men's and women's teams from Tulane and the Delta State women's team.
Diving will start at 11 a.m. in Johnson Natatorium on the USM campus, with swimming events set to start at 1 p.m.

Coach Mike Giles expressed qualified satisfaction with his teams' opening performances. "We swam pretty well and had some good times, but we can do better and hope to show improvement this week in our second meet of the season," Giles said.

In addition to the swimming, the Metro Conference Volleyball Tournament will be held Saturday and Sunday in Green Coliseum, and the Golden Eagle football team closes its regular season at home against Tulane.

Volleyball matches are scheduled for 9 and 11 a.m. and 1, 3, and 5 p.m., while the football game kicks off at 6 p.m.

Deer season opens Saturday

For deer hunters there may be no bigger weekend this year than Saturday, Nov. 23. That is the opening day for the regular gun season on white-tailed deer.

This first season lasts for nine days, closing Dec. 1. Hunting hours during deer season are one-half hour before sunrise until one-half hour after sunset.

During this first gun season all 82 counties will be open for deer hunting with the aid of dogs.

Only bucks with antlers visible above the hairline will be legal during this season. The bag limit will be one buck per day. Hunters are permitted only five legal bucks during the license year.

Hunters should remember that they will need at least 500 square inches of continuous, fluorescent daylight hunter orange while they are hunting.

All hunters, except those exempt under state law, must purchase a hunting license and have it on their person while hunting.

Anyone operating a deer camp during an open season must obtain a camp permit from the Department of Wildlife Conservation before beginning operation. The permit is free.

Resident deer hunters may purchase a Sportsman's license for $25, or an all game hunting and fishing license for $13.

Game biologists say that this may be another good year for deer hunting in Mississippi. An expanding deer herd and another good year for mast-producing trees should make for good hunting in most areas of the state.

A TIME TO RUN

On the day that Hurricane Juan came out of the Gulf recently near Baton Rouge, southwest Mississippi caught a deluge of rainfall that overflowed many farms and streams in the area.

In order to photograph the severe weather's impact on farmlands, I drove there that morning and was photographing flashflood situations near Woodville before noon.

Realizing I was near the Clark Creek Natural Area with its series of waterfalls which abound in this preserve, I went at noon to the parking area at Pond—about 10 miles west of Woodville—ate a candy bar along with a soft drink, put on rubber boots and a raincoat, grabbed my camera bag and an umbrella and set off down the rugged downhill foot trail that leads to the falls.

Effects of the storm were on every hand. At several places, parts of downed trees or limbs blocked the trail causing me to take alternate routes on the way to the first waterfall.

Water flowed down the trail despite crosssties placed diagonally across the trail periodically designed to hinder erosion by forcing rain water from the trails through these steep hills.

Periodic gusts of wind buffeted my battered old umbrella and kept me huddled up to stay as dry as possible.

I know the creek would be flowing strong that day and that views of the falls should be spectacular.

Despite noise of the rain and trees, soon I heard the unmistakable roar of the first waterfall ahead.

I was skirting Clark Creek at this time and noticed every notch in the wooded hills created racing little streams that either plunged or ultimately flowed into Clark Creek.

The stream was running hard—carrying a heavy brown load of silt with it. The sound of the first falls grew into an exciting dull roar ahead.

As I peered through the woods searching for the precipice, suddenly I saw a marvelous sight on the trail scarcely 20 feet ahead. It was a mother raccoon with three half-grown young ones splashing along in a tight procession behind her.

I opened the camera bag and reached for a camera, noticing that the raccoons were on a course toward the falls. I slogged after them trying to focus the camera and make exposure settings while holding the umbrella and maneuvering myself over difficult footings simultaneously.

The 'coons spotted me, of course, and the 'coon mother headed straight for the raging streams' division through eroded rocky crevasses at the brink of the fall.

I could not believe what I saw next. The 'coon mother leaped forward into the shallow but fiercely plunging water and shot forward—half leaping and half being swept—until she scrambled up the opposite bank leaving her three young raccoons behind.

My concern for the plight of the three young 'coons made me momentarily forget about pictures. I closed in behind them just as one started to enter the stream but found it too risky and dragged itself back to safety on our side. I looked ahead on the other bank for the mother but she was gone—long gone.

Within moments the three young began to trot upstream for the safety of the wooded bank. I again tried to photograph them. Sometimes they started up trees, but always they managed to crawl up the back side when I was nearly ready to push the shutter button of the camera.

The lead youngster glared at me in profile from a large trunk before disappearing around the tree. During this little melee the two others disappeared. I never saw them again. Nor their mother.

But the leading young one made its way to a crotch in a tree about 25 feet above me and took a comfortable position gazing down at me. I photographed that little dude with his mask d face and eyes so intent on taking me in. It's pretty tall dangled alongside the tree trunk.

I next turned my attention to photographing the first two waterfalls on Clark Creek and taking a cue from the mother 'coon, I forded the stream just above the brink of the second fall and found a great position for memorable pictures of the fall.

Nearly two hours later as I sweated beneath a raincoat on the warm climb out of the wilderness area, I thought of the 'coon and of a recent worship service at my church where the scriptures spoke of a proper time to do many things.

Ecclesiastes Three had pointed to a season of time for many purposes—such as, to be born, or die, plant or harvest, kill or heal, weep, laugh, mourn, or dance—to name a few.

At first I had literally chastised the mother 'coon for running from danger. But now I find she was more scripturally aligned than I realized. She taught her young the season and the time to run. And each apparently survived the episode in the rain-soaked woods. None the worse for it—which may be more than I can say for myself.

Many People Faced With Emotional Problems Feel All Hope Is Lost.

Depression is a disease that brings deep pain and sadness. It disrupts lives. We fear that nothing can be done about it. We fear it will never end.

Depression brings with it changes we feel so deeply, but cannot understand. A feeling of being terribly alone. A loss of interest in things that once gave us pleasure. A feeling that we can no longer cope with life around us—family, job, the world. We may withdraw from friends and loved ones. Or drink to drown our sorrow. Or sleep our days away.

But the greatest sadness of all is living with depression when help is so near.

If you or someone you care about has been living with this pain, you don't have to deal with it alone. A simple phone call to us can be the beginning of a return to life as it should be.

When you call us, you will talk to someone who has listened to many other people with problems like yours. Someone who does what they do because they want to help. Someone with the experience to understand your needs and help you take the right first step toward feeling better.

Depression is an illness that can go on and on if nothing is done. But those who suffer from it can be helped.

If you've been suffering alone, call us. Call for your own sake. Call for the sake of someone you care about. You need not endure this pain when hope is just a phone call away.

December Social Security checks to be first in new federal style

Secretary of the Treasury James A. Baker III reports nationwide conversion of the 40-year-old green punched card check to a new multi-colored paper check will save taxpayers $8 million annually.

The new check will be far more difficult to alter or counterfeit, he said.

The first major phase of the conversion will take place December 3, Baker said, when more than 20

1. The back of the check contains a pattern of "USA" repeated over the entire check in non-reproducible blue ink, except for the area above the endorsement line. The endorsement line itself is a series of "USA" when magnified. The pattern on the back of the check becomes invisible when microfilmed. The hidden word "VOID" appears when the check is photocopied.

2. Safety paper used in the check of the national conversion to the new check to avoid confusion on the part of check recipients and persons working in financial and retail institutions which cash the checks.

"We do not want people to be confused or be skeptical of the check's authenticity," he said. "And we certainly want Social Security beneficiaries to be able to cash their checks easily."

Douglas said that following the

United States Treasury

3065 50100009

million Social Security beneficiaries who receive their payments by mail will receive the new check.

Ultimately, some 115 million Americans who receive checks will be affected. The conversion of some 600 million checks will be completed during 1986.

"We're changing the check because the punched card technology is obsolete, and punched cards are no longer consistent with modern banking practices," Baker explained. "We also wanted a more secure check—one that is more difficult to alter or counterfeit."

The Secretary said the conversion embodies the Administration's goals of modernizing government, cutting costs, and embracing public/private sector initiatives.

Baker said the new check, featuring the Statue of Liberty, will contain numerous new security features, more than three times the number in the old check. Among them:

will show a positive and obvious chemical reaction upon any attempt at alteration of writing on the paper surface using ink erasers, mechanical erasures, etc.

3. Stains will appear in the name of the payee or in the amount printed on the check if an attempt is made to alter the check in these areas.

Baker said the security aspects of the new check had been under study for several years. "We want to put check counterfeiters and alters out of business."

Baker said the paper check conversion is good news for taxpayers. Because of lower paper and storage costs, the new check will save taxpayers $8 million annually.

The paper check conversion is being conducted by the Treasury's Financial Management Service, headed by Commissioner W. E. Douglas.

Baker said the Treasury Department is making the announcement

Social Security conversion in December, Internal Revenue Service tax refunds will be issued on the new checks beginning in February.

On April 1, 1986, checks disbursed for Supplemental Security Income, Civil Service Retirement, Railroad Retirement, and Veterans benefits will change, as well as most payments for Federal employees and vendors.

Douglas said the Financial Management Service has the responsibility for issuing 500 million Government checks; an additional 100 million are issued by more than 1,000 non-Treasury disbursing offices, such as the Department of Defense.

The new check's colors range from light blue to pale peach. It features two illustrations of the Statue of Liberty, a full-length engraving on the left and a muted close-up of her head and torch on the right.

Treatment of Sloping Cropland By Doug Stephens SCS

If you are one of the many Hancock County farmers who produce crops on sloping cropland, extra care should be taken not to abuse the topsoil.

The importance of topsoil to humans and the quality of our life is very important. Topsoil produces our food as well as most of our clothing and shelter. It is an absolutely essential resource, both limited and fragile.

We stand, in most places on earth, only six inches from desolation. It takes nature 500 to 800 years to produce an inch of the fertile topsoil. It doesn't take man and his machinery nearly that long to wash it away. Under certain conditions, it takes man only a few minutes to wash an inch away.

Thousands of tons of topsoil leave the fields right here in Hancock County every year. If that did not catch your attention, let me put it another way.

If someone was sneaking into your fields at night with a dump truck and a loader and hauling away 5 to 10 tons of topsoil per acre, you would be plenty mad.

Yet some farmers are allowing this type damage to happen. Not from thieves with dump trucks, but from rain water running off poorly managed land—land that's selling for as much as $800 to $1000 per acre. Soil loss also costs you big money in lower yields and nutrient loss.

You can see that it is common sense to practice conservation and prevent erosion of your soil. There is no way to completely stop erosion, but it can certainly be slowed to an allowable limit. There are several ways to reduce soil erosion. Contour farming, terraces, diversions, crop residue management, minimum till, and no-till farming are some of the ways to slow erosion.

If you think that you could use one or more of these conservation practices to keep the "robbers" from taking your soil, call or come by the Soil Conservation Service office in Kiln. We will be glad to give you assistance with your farming operation, call 255-3225.

Strong play by Hawks in second quarter comes up short, 24-22

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
Although the Hancock North Central Hawks were ahead most of the second half, their opponents scored on a field goal in the last two minutes of the game to win.

The Hawks were defeated 24-22 by Forrest County Agricultural High School in the 11th annual Wendell Ladner Bowl Saturday.
Coach Irvin Favre said he was really proud of the team because they had played so hard.

"We didn't play as well in the first half but really made a game of it later. Unfortunately we came up short," he said.

"We had some real good senior leadership and were hoping to get the win basically for them," Favre said.

Favre had extra words of praise for seniors Drew Malley, Brian Necaise, Stanley Jourdan, John Tule, Tommy Lull, Scott Curet, Jacob Dupree and Tompey Lawler.
In Saturday's game, the Hawks received the opening kickoff and gained a first down but a 15-yard penalty forced a punt.

The Aggies drove down the field, tallying five first downs before scoring on a keeper play by Charles Kindred. The kick was good and the Aggies were up 7-0.

Taking the kickoff, the Hawks rushed for about 40 yards before a Hancock pass was intercepted by Aggie James Sheasby. Contributing to those 40 yards were runs by Jourdan, Burton and Malley.

Forrest County had to punt and the Hawks took possession on the 48-yard line.

Drew Malley rushed the final yard for the score midway the second quarter and Casey Hoda added the points on a conversion. The Hawks moved ahead 8-6.

On the next Aggie possession, Kindred connected with Stokley Leggett on a 28-yard touchdown pass. Kindred on an option to the right scored the PAT.

Forrest County took a 15-8 lead which held through the remainder of the first half.

Following the "sluggish play" by the Hawks early in the game, fans got a view of the outstanding play that gave the Hawks a winning 1985 season in the second half.

The Hawks returned to the field following halftime with a play that turned the score around on their first possession.

Delano Lewis returned an Aggie punt for the score. Jourdan caught a HAWKS—Page 3B

Long Beach defeats Stanislaus in cage season opener, 52-39

Long Beach used a strong inside attack to overcome a five-point halftime deficit in the second half to beat St. Stanislaus 52-39 in the season opener for both schools. SSC held a 22-17 halftime advantage.

tage, led by the scoring of YaSin Shabazz and Steve Montagnet. But Rockachaw forwards Tom Walton and Jim Maxey got into foul trouble which forced the Rocks to make halftime adjustments, allowing the Bearcats to dominate the inside boards in the second half.

High scorers for the Rocks were sophomore YaSin Shabazz with 13 points, followed by Tom Walton with 9 and Steve Montagnet with 6. For Long Beach, Bobby Reed led all scorers with 26 points and Corey Lyons added 12 points to the cause.

Long Beach outrebounded the Rocks 34-26. From the foul line, SSC was 7 for 16 while Long Beach was 8 for 33. The Rocks had 24 team fouls to Long Beach's 14 team fouls.

SSC head coach Bro Anton, S.C. commented, "I thought our team played an excellent first half. But when our big men got into foul trouble late in the second quarter, we had to make some halftime defensive adjustments. I have to credit Long Beach with being very strong inside and very physical. We must counter their inside game to be effective."

"A lot of credit goes to John Keller and Steve Montagnet who did an excellent job for us coming off the bench. Also, YaSin Shabazz played a fine game at point guard after only one week of work. He will be an excellent player once he gains a little more maturity as a player."

The next home game for St. Stanislaus is this Saturday, Nov. 23rd, against Long Beach. The reason both games with Long Beach are played at SSC's gym is that Long Beach's gym is still undergoing renovation and is not yet playable.

In the preliminary Junior Varsity contest, the Rocks defeated the Bearcats 41-30. Robert Brown and John Gross led the Rocks with 10 points each, followed by Jay Ardigues with 9 points. Coach Rod Herring said that Brian Alexander contributed to the win with good, heads-up play. The next JV game is Saturday at 6:30 p.m. against Long Beach.

Tigers to face Magee Trojans in round one of south play-offs

BY DENA BISNETTE
The Bay St. Louis High School Tigers face the Magee Trojans Friday in the first round of the South State Championships.

The game is to be played at a neutral site, Blair High in Hattiesburg.

The Tigers captured the District VIII 3-A Championship last week by defeating Purvis 27-13 to get into the first round of the play-offs.

According to Tiger Head Coach Cleveland Williams, the third-ranked Trojans have a 10-1 record with their only loss being to a Florida team ranked second in the nation.

The 20th-ranked Tigers, counting the play-off game against Purvis, also have a 10-1 record. Bay High's only loss was during the regular season against local rival Hancock North Central.

"Losing to their arch-rival Hancock North Central has turned the Tigers around, putting them in the right frame of mind for the close of the season and a big win over Purvis last week," Williams said.

"We know we have to play good ball against Magee High School. We also realize we can't afford to have too many mental breakdowns."

"I know our boys are ready to play ball. Besides, we have skill people at various positions on both offensive and defensive squads."

"Our boys will give 100 percent and more throughout the game because of their pride and desire to play," Williams added.

"The challenge to go this far really makes our boys that much hungrier for a win over a good ball club."

The Magee Trojans are what Williams calls "a good ballclub." Their line averages about 230 pounds. Their starting quarterback and starting fullback are both 4.4 sprinters and they have a running back who can sprint in 4.6.

"Everybody knows Magee has a solid ballclub, but they put their pants on just like our boys," the coach commented.

Tiger practices have been extended in preparation for Magee as they were prior to the Purvis game.

"We have spent long hours preparing for this game because it is a first for the Tigers," Williams said. "We have had an enjoyable year so far but we aren't ready to stop playing ball as of yet."

The coach added that he was pleased with the support the Tigers received in the Purvis game and hopes it will continue.

"We love the job our Tiger fans have done for us so far and we need their support until the end," he said. The play-off round Friday also includes a game between the District V and District VII 3-A champions.

A victory over the Trojans Friday would put the Tigers in the second round against the winner of the District V-District VII game for the South State Championship.

The South State Champions will face the North State Champions, determined by a similar play-off system in districts above Jackson, for the State 3-A championship.

Offensive starters Friday are expected to include Butch Pierce center; Trace McRaney, guard; Greg Necaise, guard; Craig Breland, tackle; Stace McRaney, tackle; Robert Hargett, tight end; Quentin Bell, quarterback; Brian Laneaux, fullback; Willie Lewis, running back; Matt Fairconnetue, wingback; and Dennis Dear, split end.

The defensive line-up for Friday includes Jerry Island, tackle; Craig Breland, tackle; Greg Necaise, end; Geja Carter, end; Trace McRaney, linebacker; Stace McRaney, linebacker; Jessie Parker, outside linebacker; Matt Fairconnetue, outside linebacker; Willie Lewis, cornerback; Dennis Dear, cornerback; and Todd Marlon, free safety.

Junior High Rocks split with Pearl River Central

The St. Stanislaus 8th Grade Basketball team exploded for 21 points in the first quarter and cruised to a 47-18 victory over visiting Pearl River Central in a game played this past Monday in the old Rockachaw gymnasium.

The Rocks were led by Shannon Garrett, Greg Schuff, Sean Sewell and Cedric Smith. Garrett, Sewell, and Perrone controlled the boards allowing PRC only one shot at the basket in most cases.

Offensively, ten of the fifteen Rock players scored points, with Sean Sewell with 11 points, followed by Shannon Garrett and Greg Schuff with 8 each. Cedric Smith and Chuck Schneider contributed six points apiece.

For Pearl River Central, Brian

Montgomery led their scorers with 11 points.

Eighth grade coach Chuck Genin commented, "I thought we played very intense defense which forced many turnovers which we converted into points. Overall, we had excellent team play for having only one week of practice."

"The crowd support for us was tremendous. It was definitely a factor in the game. But our big test comes in the next three games, when we face Stone, Bay High, and Hancock North Central."

In the ninth grade game, the Rocks were defeated by PRC 37-33 in an exciting game that went into three overtime periods. PRC forward Anthony Jones scored the winning two baskets with a minute left in the third overtime period.

Leading the Rock scorers were Jeff Battle with 10 points, followed by Scott Heitzmann with 8 and Bert Dean with 7. The Rocks played tough defense and showed great hustle even without the services of two starters, Bert Dean and Lloyd Nicaud, who both fouled out before the overtime periods.

The Rockachaw Jr. High teams travel to Stone this Thursday to play the Stone County Tomcats who always field good basketball teams. The 8th grade game begins at 5:00 p.m., followed by the 9th grade game at 6:15 p.m.

The next home game for the Rocks is next Monday against Bay Jr. High.

Tally said he occasionally camps at Biscayne Park and the good fishing luck he has had at the pier has made it his favorite fishing spot. "It took me about 30 minutes or so to land this one. It put up a good fight," he commented. (Staff photo by Dena Bisnette) pass from Quarterback Brett Favre for the two point conversion.

The Aggies punted away their next possession and the Hawks started their drive which took nearly seven minutes and gained another score.

Jourdan scored from seven yards out to bring the score to 22-15 at the end of the third quarter. The extra point attempt failed.

Forrest County began a drive next that finished the third quarter and went several minutes into the fourth before they scored with a pass from Kindred to Monwell Magee.

An attempt to tie the game failed as the extra point kick was no good. The score was 22-21.

Hancock punted away the ball and Forrest County took possession on the Hawk 45-yard line.

Eight plays later the Aggies moved into field goal position and made the score with 1:25 left in the game.

The Hawks took possession but an interception by the Aggies ended all hope for Hancock fans. The final score was 22-24.

Junior High Roackachaw football team shows promise for future

The 1985 Junior High St. Stanislaus Roackachaws ended their season two weeks ago with a heart-breaking 21-20 loss to their friendly rivals from Bay Jr. High.

Although the Rocks lost the game, many positive things were evident. Eighth grader Cedric Smith moved from split end to quarterback midway through the season and threw two touchdown passes in the Bay High game.

Running back Gino Ascani has his usual, consistent hard-running offensive game as well as some crushing tackles on defense.

The entire offensive line, comprised of Nelson Constant, Bert Dean, Jeff Battle, Tom Zant, Scott Necaise, and Chris Perrone displayed excellent hustle and ability in their last three games.

Sean Sewell from his wingback position made some key blocks to spring the Roackachaw running backs for long gains and also completed a crucial halfback pass to tight end Lloyd Nicaud.

Split end Shannon Garrett caught two TD passes in the Bay High game, and had another one called back as the first half ended. On the Rocks' last drive in the Bay High game, Garrett caught a deep pass while off-balance on the Bay High 13-yard line to set up a last second field-goal try by Scott Heitzmann.

Jr. High coaches Larry Ramsey and Chuck Genin were very pleased with the overall development of the squad, particularly in the fundamentals of blocking and tackling.

"Our boys came a long way in a short period of time," commented coach Ramsey. "The future looks bright for St. Stanislaus."

The following players were cited for post-season Junior High Honors: Gino Ascani, was named Most Valuable defensive back; Shannon Garrett and Jim Esposito made the All-Conference team.

Receiving Honorable Mention for All-Conference honors were Cedric Smith, Vincent Bradley, and Steven Dale. Both Smith and Dale are eighth graders and will return next year.

QUARTERBACK Jason Lolacano of Bay Booster Club Crusaders searches for a receiver in a recent three-team jamboree played at St. Stanislaus Stadium.

OUTSTANDING—Bay High Tiger Willie Lewis has been selected most valuable offensive player for Bay High for Friday night's game against Purvis. Selected on defense for Bay High was Stace McRaney. Most valuable players for Hancock North Central in the Wendell Ladner Bowl against Forrest County AHS were Stanley Jourdan on offense and Drew Malley on defense. The MVP selections are sponsored by Rick Geoffrey Trophies and Lolacano's Health Club. Awards will be presented at each school's football awards banquet. (Staff photo by Dena Bisnette)

Education forum scheduled Nov. 21

"Teacher and School Effectiveness", a videotape on how schools can improve their programs, will be the focus of an education forum to be held Thursday, Nov. 21, at 7 p.m. at the Bay Junior High School auditorium.

Sponsored by the Bay St. Louis Association of Educators as part of American Education Week, the program will feature guest speakers Senator Gene Taylor and Assistant Superintendent of Bay-Waveland schools Robert Magee.

Sen. Taylor will discuss the outlook for education in the upcoming legislative session. Magee will speak about the impact of effective schools research findings on Bay-Waveland schools under the Mississippi Education Reform Act.

Noting that commitment from the legislature, school personnel, and the public is needed to achieve excellence in schools, BSLAE president Peggy Dutton said, "Tremendous interest is being shown by our community in quality education."

"We hope that all concerned school personnel, parents, businesspeople, and citizens will participate in the forum to become aware of the characteristics found in successful schools and the work our local schools are undertaking to achieve them."

Bay High Deca members attend Tupelo confab

Seventeen members and the faculty advisor of the Bay High DECA Chapter attended a Fall Leadership Conference in Tupelo Nov. 9-10.

These members participated in various workshops dealing with how to be a better DECA member, a better DECA officer, and how to prepare for district, state, and national competition.

John Dowden, sophomore at Bay High, went through the screening committee process to run for DECA state officer.

Dowden will be attending the State Leadership Conference in Jackson in March and will be campaigning for the District IV DECA vice-president's position.

Three chapter officers from Bay High attended the conference: Peggy Favre, president; Desiree Brignac, vice-president; Karen Burch, secretary/treasurer.

Each officer attended workshops entitled "Leadership—The Qualities Necessary for a Chapter Officer" and a workshop related to their particular office.

Other workshops offered and attended by various members were "How To Make Your Town/Community Aware of DECA," "How To Be a Successful DECA Member," "Leadership—Developing Your Best Potential," and "Reaching Out to Help Others Through MDA."

The students are now writing manuals and preparing for competition which will be held later this year.

Various members will be competing on the district level at the University of Southern Mississippi in January, the State Leadership Conference in Jackson in March, and the National Conference in April in Atlanta, Ga.

TEEN BOARD REP—Traci Schexnayder, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Schexnayder of Long Beach, has been selected as a teen board representative for Seventeen Magazine by the Princess Shoppe Teen Board. She is a junior at Long Beach High School where she is a member of the Concert Choir and is a Madrigal. She is one of 18 students chosen from a choir of sixty who have been invited by the International Cultural Exchange to participate in the International Youth and Music Festival in Vienna, Austria in July. She is a member of the Student Council, member of the Board of The Sea Gull Annual, member of the Junior Class Float Committee and the Homecoming Parade. She is a second-year member of the Princess Shoppe Teen Board, and won the Teen Board outstanding member award for the year 1984.

Phillips College Student Council officers named

REBECCA CAMPBELL

Rebecca Campbell of Pass Christian was elected president of the 1985-86 Student Council at Phillips College of Gulfport.

She and the other new officers will serve a term of six months until April, 1986.

Reginald Crumpton of Biloxi was elected vice-president; Donna Wickert of Slidell, La., secretary; and Deborah Albert of Gulfport, treasurer.

The five-member Student Council includes William Boyer of Gulfport, Wanda Cousin of Picayune, Rosemary Jackson of Wiggins, Mylinda Slade of Gulfport and Lynda Lamier of Bay St. Louis.

Legion to judge contest

Clement R. Bontemps American Legion Post No. 139, Bay St. Louis, is sponsoring local preliminaries to the 49th Annual National American Legion High School Oratorical Contest.

Five judges will hear some 10 area student entrants beginning at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 18, at the post home on Green Meadow Road.

"Students win more than awards and scholarships when they participate in the American Legion High School Oratorical Contest," said Bill Moran, chairman of the local program.

"Some of the fringe benefits," according to Moran, "are increased self-confidence and poise, experience in communicating with others and valuable training in self expression."

"In the 49 years the American Legion has sponsored the high school oratorical contest, more than four million high school students have participated," he added.

Participants write then deliver an eight to ten minute expression of their views on some phase of "The Constitution of the United States" which will give emphasis to the attendant duties and obligations of a citizen to our government," Moran continued.

National winners receive a total of $40,000 in scholarship awards.

"One of the greatest benefits to young people who take part in the program is that by thinking, writing and speaking on their understanding of the Constitution of the United States, they gain a better appreciation of their obligation to maintain freedom heritage," Moran said.

Biloxi store teen board selects two from Bay High

Two girls from Bay Senior High have been selected to Gayfer's Teen Board.

This 58-member board was recently honored by Seventeen Magazine for being chosen as one of the top four youth boards across the United States.

Cheryl Jones, daughter of Mrs. Mitchell L. Jones and the late Mr. Jones, is in her second year on the board.

As a new member last year, she received "Most Outstanding New Gayfer Girl" and "Spirit of Gayfer Girl" awards.

She was elected president of the 85-86 board.

Kristi Kidd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kidd of Waveland, is a new member to the board this year.

Both girls were presented in the annual Seventeen Show at the Saenger Theatre in Biloxi.

All proceeds from this year's show were donated to the Mental Retardation Center and the Gayfer Girl Scholarship Fund.

Their next show will be in November, a display of holiday fashions.

"Saturday Shows," in which the girls are in charge of everything from choosing clothes to designing backdrops, will begin sometime in February.

However, modeling is not where the majority of Gayfer Girl time is spent. The "GG's" are involved with many charitable organizations, including the American Cancer Society, Heart Fund, Mississippi Kidney Foundation, Salvation Army, Senior Citizens, and the VA Valentine and Easter programs.

Kidd is serving as vice-president of the junior class, was selected as a junior maid on Bay High's homecoming court, and was elected "Class Favorite."

Jones serves as president of the senior class, treasurer of the Student Council, and is a member of the National Honor Society.

Recently, she was selected by the senior class as "Best Dressed" in Bay High's election for school favorites.

Narcotics News

Q. I have been told that marijuana is not habit forming, is that true? (J.D. - Weir, MS)

A. While marijuana may not cause the physical dependency seen with drugs like heroin or the barbiturates, it is habit forming in a way that is more difficult to cure.

Studies have long indicated that marijuana causes psychological dependency.

The regular user begins to feel that he must have the euphoria the drug induces to such a high degree that depriving a heavy user may result in anxiety, depression, or in some cases thoughts of suicide.

This is just another reason people should not experience or use marijuana or any other illegal drug.

Q. I recently attended a seminar on drugs and someone asked a question concerning designer drugs. Could you explain what are designer drugs? (L.C. Wiggins)

A. Designer drugs is a nickname for drugs that are clandestinely manufactured usually by underground chemists who change the molecular structure of the compound for sale on the street.

Changing the chemical compound slightly keeps these types of drugs from becoming illegal, because if the compound is not scheduled - no laws apply to it.

Some of these drugs manufactured by underground chemists are 100 to 3,000 more potent than say morphine.

Research has linked, but not definitely proven, that some designer drugs cause brain damage and some are causing symptoms similar to those of Parkinson's disease.

If you have any questions please feel free to write: Mississippi Bureau of Narcotics, P. O. Box 6462, Jackson, MS 39212.

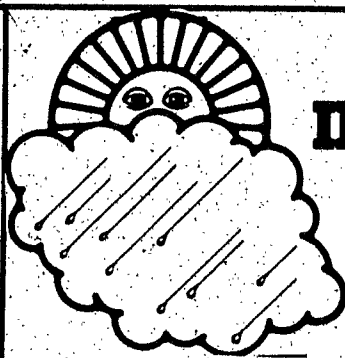

The trouble with trying to walk in a successful man's footsteps is that, most of the time, he travels by limousine.

All students in grades 10-12 who are US Citizens are eligible to compete. Deadline for school competition is Nov. 30.

District 1 judging will be held Monday, Dec. 9 at 6 p.m. at WBND Radio Station, Biloxi.

All first place school winners are eligible to compete in district judging.

Last year's District 1 winner, Louanne Walters of Gulfport High, went on to represent the state at national competition in Washington, D.C. where she placed 11th.

Southern 'Super Day' planned

Students across the state may participate in a day of special events planned on the University of Southern Mississippi campus Saturday.

An 'Honors Day' event is planned for students with high ACT scores; 'Southern Hospitality Day' is set for junior college students who are members of recruiting or hospitality teams; and a 'Spirit Spectacular' event will be held for all-high school and junior college students who are prospective USM students.

According to Dr. Becky Askew, director of the USM Office of High School and Junior College Relations, the event will be held simultaneously with all participants being provided free tickets to the USM vs. Tulane football game at 6 p.m. the same day.

The Honors Day event for students with high ACT scores will provide prospective students an opportunity to learn about the USM Honors College, as well as scholarship opportunities available.

An overview of academics will be presented by Dr. Shelby Thames, USM executive vice president.

Marjorie Wheeler, administrative assistant in the Honors College, will discuss available programs.

Students will visit Honors College facilities, meeting with faculty members and students, before touring the campus.

Taking place simultaneously will be Southern Hospitality Day. Askew said the event is designed for junior college students who are members of recruiting or hospitality teams.

Workshops will be presented on subjects such as marketing, ice-breakers or dealing with campus guests. Workshop leaders will include Russell Ray of Copiah-Lincoln Junior College, Jackie Granberry of Hinds Junior College and Michael Jones of the USM Department of Marketing.

Song competition will be held, with an award being presented to the recruiting group with the best orientation song.

The day will end with a luncheon at which Dr. Clyde Ginn, USM executive assistant to the president, will be the keynote speaker. Entertainment will be provided by Miss Mississippi, Nan Sumrall, a USM student.

Registration will begin at 2 p.m. for Spirit Spectacular, an event for all prospective USM students—high school and junior college students. Special entertainment by USM's song-and-dance troupe, Southern Exposure, will be provided, and a pep rally by USM cheerleaders will highlight the event.

Door prizes will be presented and all schools and colleges at USM will set up displays in the USM Union. Social sororities and fraternities and various campus organizations also will have representatives on hand to talk with prospective students.

Askew said a "super day" of events is planned for high school and junior college students from across the state. Individuals desiring to obtain more information may contact the USM Office of High School and Junior College relations by writing Southern Station Box 5166, Hattiesburg, Miss., 39406-5166, or calling (601) 266-5000.

Association honors cafeteria manager

Myra Peterson, cafeteria manager at Hancock North Central, was recently honored by being selected as Manager of The Year for District I of the Mississippi School Food Service Association.

In addition, Peterson was installed as District I secretary-treasurer at the fall district meeting in Ocean Springs. She will serve a two-year term.

She has served the school district for 11 years as secretary, cafeteria worker, assistant manager and manager. In addition, Peterson has represented the district for three years as an association delegate and has been attending conventions for eight years.

Peterson also assists in extra-curricular activities designed to teach students about food service, including tasting parties, cooking classes, nutritional education, student cafeteria aid instruction and cafeteria cleanliness programs.

Hancock County School Food Services Supervisor Rhea Scaffidi said both honors were "firsts for the Hancock County School District."

Scaffidi and another Hancock County representative, Pearl Woods, were named delegates to the association's fall convention.

Louisiana vo-tech school offers marine training

Vocational training for the marine industry is being offered by the Louisiana Marine & Petroleum Institute in Houma, La., starting at 9 a.m. Jan. 27.

Applications for admission to this pre-employment program must be received by Dec. 13 and the class will be limited to 40.

There will not be another Basic Marine Training class until April 1. The institute is a state-operated vocational-technical school, and offers training for deckhands, marine operations, and vessel engineering.

The programs vary in length with the deckhand training lasting approximately three months plus a period of on-the-job training.

All physically qualified persons who have successfully completed the deckhand training have found employment, if desired.

The advanced Marine Operations & Vessel Engineering programs are Coast Guard approved.

This has the result of lessening the time required to obtain a marine license as mate or assistant engineer.

The complete Marine Operations or Vessel Engineering programs, which includes deckhand training, last approximately two years with about one year spent in on-the-job training while employed aboard vessels, rigs or platforms.

Tuition for non-Louisiana trainees is $100/month. There is an annual $50 tuition charge for Louisiana residents.

Room and board, books and school supplies must be obtained by the trainee. LaMPI is an equal opportunity school and is dedicated to a policy of non-discrimination.

Persons desiring further information should write Louisiana Marine & Petroleum Institute, P.O. Box 10281, Houma, La. 70360 and request an application for admission or call 504/261-3322 between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. on weekdays.

UNO Observatory open for viewing Halley's Comet

The University of New Orleans Observatory is open at 9 p.m. for viewing Halley's Comet each Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the comet is no longer visible.

The observatory is located in UNO's Science building.

"As the end of the month approaches and more spectacular parts of the comet become visible, viewing will start earlier in the evening," Dr. Gary Ransford, UNO associate professor of physics, said in making the announcement.

Ransford, who said that the comet is now "slightly more than a fuzzy spot," said that the best viewing will be when the comet makes its first encounter with the earth at the end of November, as well as in early April.

A UNO faculty member or student assistant will be available for commentary and to provide assistance in using the telescope, added Ransford.

For further information, call George Frichter at 295-5711.

Q. I've lost my Social Security card, but I've got my number written down on a piece of paper. Do I still need to get another card?

A. Yes. A number written on a piece of paper is not enough when you apply for a job; you'll need to show your employer your Social Security card. You'll also need the card when you apply for any kind of Social Security or supplemental security income benefits. To apply for a replacement card, you must furnish evidence that establishes your identity. Call any Social Security office to find out how you can do this.

Your Pet's Health

Protect Your Cat
With Correct Shots

By Steven M. Fox, DVM,
Assistant Professor of Veterinary Medicine,
Mississippi State University

Now something for you cat owners. We all know that our cats must visit the veterinarian at least annually to get their shots, but what are those "shots" anyway?

Although some veterinarians offer the opportunity of self-embarrassment by allowing you to request what shots you wish, most veterinarians appreciate your lack of medical expertise and simply encourage an annual vaccination of at least a rabies shot and a three-in-one or FVRCP shot.

FVRCP is a vaccination against three diseases:

- 1) Feline Viral Rhinotracheitis (FVR)
- 2) Feline Calicivirus (FCV) and
- 3) Feline Panleukopenia (feline distemper).

The following is a brief description of the first two diseases protected against by this three-in-one shot.

The domestic cat is the only known natural host for feline rhinotracheitis. FVR is a most contagious disease, especially among young susceptible cats between the ages of three to eighteen months old. In young kittens morbidity approaches 100 percent.

The natural incubation of FVR is five to ten days with a clinical course of two to four weeks. Initially the disease is marked by the sudden onset of fever as high as 105 degrees Fahrenheit, inflammation of the eyes (conjunctivitis), increased tearing of the eyes, nasal discharge and bouts of sneezing.

The sneezing seems to be increased by excitement and results in a rapid dispersal of the virus. After two to three days the watery discharge from the eyes changes to a more thickened discharge that tends to plug the nostrils and paste the eyelids together. This in turn causes mouth breathing and general facial unsightliness.

By three to five days of clinical illness the infected cat refuses to eat and exhibits depression. As the disease progresses the eyes, genital tract, and oral-nasal cavity become sites of prey for the virus.

Feline calicivirus is another infection which together with feline rhinotracheitis causes 85 to 90 percent of all upper respiratory infections in the cat. The virus is shed almost continuously into the oropharynx of carrier cats in contrast to the intermittent shedding of FVR virus by carriers thus accounting for its persistence in nature.

Calicivirus is transmitted through the sneeze of infected cats. The morbidity rate in young kittens approaches 30 percent.

The clinical signs of FCV are indistinguishable from those of FVR. However, tongue ulcerations may be the only sign of infection. Labored breathing is a prominent sign of pneumonia caused by calicivirus.

The incubation period of FCV is by virus isolation and identification. This would simulate the tedious task of your own physician identifying the viral origin of your common cold.

The FVRCP inoculation is available from your veterinarian. This is given as two injections two to three weeks apart commencing at nine weeks of age. Kittens younger than nine weeks should receive injections every two to four weeks until twelve weeks of age.

Booster injections are recommended at six month intervals. See your veterinarian today and make sure your cat's vaccinations are up to date.

DRUGLESS HEALING

Chiropractic is the largest drugless healing art in the world. It deals with the relationship between structure and function in the human body, and it concerns itself particularly with the muscular, skeletal and nervous systems, and with the restoration and maintenance of good health.

The chiropractic physician's first concern is to discover and remove the CAUSE of his patient's problem, not merely to treat his symptoms.

The following is a brief description of the first two diseases protected against by this three-in-one shot.

The domestic cat is the only known natural host for feline rhinotracheitis. FVR is a most contagious disease, especially among young susceptible cats between the ages of three to eighteen months old. In young kittens morbidity approaches 100 percent.

The natural incubation of FVR is five to ten days with a clinical course of two to four weeks. Initially the disease is marked by the sudden onset of fever as high as 105 degrees Fahrenheit, inflammation of the eyes (conjunctivitis), increased tearing of the eyes, nasal discharge and bouts of sneezing.

The sneezing seems to be increased by excitement and results in a rapid dispersal of the virus. After two to three days the watery discharge from the eyes changes to a more thickened discharge that tends to plug the nostrils and paste the eyelids together. This in turn causes mouth breathing and general facial unsightliness.

By three to five days of clinical illness the infected cat refuses to eat and exhibits depression. As the disease progresses the eyes, genital tract, and oral-nasal cavity become sites of prey for the virus.

Feline calicivirus is another infection which together with feline rhinotracheitis causes 85 to 90 percent of all upper respiratory infections in the cat. The virus is shed almost continuously into the oropharynx of carrier cats in contrast to the intermittent shedding of FVR virus by carriers thus accounting for its persistence in nature.

Calicivirus is transmitted through the sneeze of infected cats. The morbidity rate in young kittens approaches 30 percent.

The clinical signs of FCV are indistinguishable from those of FVR. However, tongue ulcerations may be the only sign of infection. Labored breathing is a prominent sign of pneumonia caused by calicivirus.

The incubation period of FCV is by virus isolation and identification. This would simulate the tedious task of your own physician identifying the viral origin of your common cold.

The FVRCP inoculation is available from your veterinarian. This is given as two injections two to three weeks apart commencing at nine weeks of age. Kittens younger than nine weeks should receive injections every two to four weeks until twelve weeks of age.

Booster injections are recommended at six month intervals. See your veterinarian today and make sure your cat's vaccinations are up to date.

Wusnack attends library advisory council meet

Prima Wusnack, director of the Hancock County Library System, attended the Mississippi Library Services and Construction Act (LSCA) Advisory Council meeting held November 14 in Jackson.

The council, composed of 15 members, advises the director of the Mississippi Library Commission on programs and policies pursued under the auspices of U.S. Public Law 91-600.

In addition, the council annually reviews implementation of the "Long-Range Program for Library Development in Mississippi."

Wusnack, director of libraries in Hancock County since 1975, was appointed to the state LSCA Council in 1984 for a three-year term.

Hall to attend O'Brien youth leadership meet

Dy'etra Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hall Jr. of Pass Christian has been selected as the 1986 Hugh O'Brien Youth Foundation candidate from Pass Christian High School.

She will attend the Mississippi Youth Leadership Seminar in the Spring of 1986 in Jackson.

Purpose of the Hugh O'Brien Youth Foundation is to seek out, recognize, and reward leadership qualities.

Annual leadership seminars at the state and international levels take the form of intense but informal discussions aimed at giving the young student a straight forward view of what the world is all about.

While at Pass Christian High School, Hall has been in the marching and concert bands where she plays clarinet and bells.

She has been a band section leader for five years and has won seven medals with superior ratings.

Hall has also been awarded four trophies for outstanding band member.

Last year she was captain of the Quiz Bowl Team. She is also a member of the Science Club.

Hall is secretary of the First Missionary Baptist Youth Organization. She has worked as a volunteer at Gulfport Memorial Hospital where she served 100 hours.

Last summer she gave a lecture on "The Importance of Getting an Education While You're Young" for the District Sunday School Baptist Training Congress.

Free program offered at UNO for prospects

The University of New Orleans will host "UNO INTRO," a college-campus visitation program for college-bound high school students, Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the UNO Health and Physical Education Center.

The program, which is free, will feature presentations on planning for college, selecting a major, and financing a college education. UNO faculty, staff and students will conduct sample classes and panel discussions.

Campus tours and an opportunity to meet representatives from the university's 90 student organizations will round out the program to acquaint college-bound students with UNO's various academic programs, student activities and facilities.

A mini-fest will be held in the afternoon and will feature a picnic lunch (which can be purchased for $2.50 at check-in), band music, games and demonstrations of aikido, karate and fencing.

Students who are interested in attending "UNO INTRO" may make reservations by contacting UNO's Office of Recruiting and School Relations at (504) 286-6601.

DRUGLESS HEALING

Chiropractic is the largest drugless healing art in the world. It deals with the relationship between structure and function in the human body; and it concerns itself particularly with the muscular, skeletal and nervous systems, and with the restoration and maintenance of good health. The chiropractic physician's first concern is to discover and remove the CAUSE of his patient's problem, not merely to treat his symptoms.

Your Stars Above

BY EVE EWING

ARIES (3/21-4/19) You itch to blaze new paths, but more timid souls are not eager to follow. You face a tough decision — go it alone, or forget your dream. Either way could mean great rewards — or major disappointment.

TAURUS (4/20-5/20) This is a good month to do a lot of home entertaining and you excel at it. Your elegant tastes combine with a keen eye for value to make you a great hostess without breaking the bank.

GEMINI (5/21-6/20) You will never be satisfied on the sidelines, so make sure you choose a mate who won't be intimidated by your star quality. Your bubbling creativity and energy could daunt a lesser soul.

CANCER (6/21-7/22) One should always be prepared to forgive, but don't turn a blind eye to others' faults when they are repeated. Kindly, but firmly, insist on your rights and refuse to be a sap for a sob story.

LEO (7/23-8/22) When it comes to decisions, you will always be a loner. This has its good and bad points, but if you are prepared for disapproval, go ahead and chart your own course.

VIRGO (8/23-9/22) A talent for bringing order out of chaos will take you to the head of the class in any career you choose. Watch a tendency to be overly critical of those less talented.

LIBRA (9/23-10/22) Peace at any price is to often your motto. While life is happiest when peaceful, it is sometimes necessary to confront unpleasant situations head-on in order to assure future harmony.

SCORPIO (10/23-11/21) Loving someone does not give you total rights over every facet of that person's life. Real love means knowing when to ease up and trust the other's judgement.

SAGITTARIUS (11/22-12/21) Your constant search for wisdom means always moving on, sometimes ignoring the wisdom that lies in familiar pastures. However, since you know your own faults, you won't come to grief, although you may miss happiness.

CAPRICORN (12/22-1/19) Your need for deep love and visible affection is strong, but you shrink from showing your feelings. Drop that aloof manner and let those near you see how much you need them.

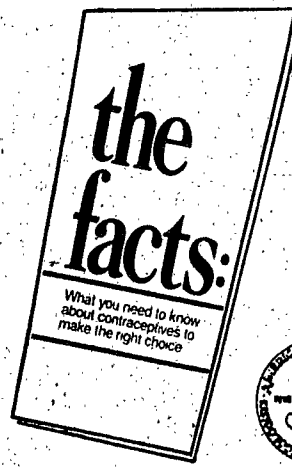

AQUARIUS (1/20-2/18) You long to accomplish something meaningful with your life, but you won't stand still long enough to do so. Your desire must be augmented with equal amounts of hard, sometimes boring work.

PISCES (2/19-3/20) As an incurable romantic you should seek your fortune in one of the arts for real fulfillment. It may not be as financially rewarding as other fields, but will bring you much pleasure.
